SME IPOs, at their best, have outperformed every traditional asset class by a significant margin. A well-selected SME IPO portfolio would have delivered 3–5x returns in two to three years, something gold, real estate, or even the Nifty couldn't replicate.

SME

Your Hidden Alpha Advantage

Analysis of both absolute returns and Compound Annual Growth Rates (CAGR) over a 6-year period demonstrates a compelling trend: Small and Mid-sized Enterprises (SMEs) have consistently surpassed the performance of established benchmarks like the Nifty 50 and the Nifty Small Cap 100.

This superior performance translates into positive alpha, a key metric indicating an investment's ability to generate returns that exceed those of the broader market. In simpler terms, by investing in SMEs, shareholders have enjoyed significant returns that outperform the market average.

Comparison of Absolute Gains*

BSE SME index has generated a ~70 Cr. Absolute return over the past six years.

Comparison of CAGR Gains*

BSE SME index has generated a 103% CAGR return over the past six years.

* Data Source: NSE, Data till June 2026

Given the consistent outperformance, even a modest allocation to SME's within a portfolio has the potential to significantly boost overall returns and push them towards superior, risk-adjusted performance.

Our Investment Approach

WHAT TO BUY?

We start by building a strong thesis around a company using our proprietary LMVT framework. This framework allows us to identify businesses with solid fundamentals, scalable models, and a clear path to long-term value creation.

WHEN TO BUY?

Timing is critical, and we strive to enter as early as possible, often at the pre-IPO or IPO stage. This ensures we position ourselves at the beginning of a company's growth curve, maximizing the potential for returns as the business scales.

HOW MUCH TO BUY?

Our investment process begins with a rigorous thesis-building exercise, anchored in our proprietary LMVT framework. This framework enables us to screen and evaluate SMEs on parameters such as financial strength, scalability of operations, governance standards, and industry positioning.

WHEN TO EXIT?

Our exit strategy is guided by clear principles. We step away when growth expectations are not met, when valuations become unreasonably high, or when corporate governance issues arise. These criteria help us preserve capital and maintain discipline in our investment decisions.

A Forensic Approach to SME Screening

LFOT

1. Legal, Governance & Compliance Checks

- Litigation status & regulatory notices
- Corporate governance strength (board, audit, disclosures)
- Auditor track record & auditor rotation history
- Promoter integrity, credit history & pledge checks
- ESG & statutory compliance review
- Key-man & succession depth

2. Financial & Accounting Forensics

Quantitative

- Revenue growth < profit growth
- Operating cash flow < accounting profits
- Expense capitalization to inflate earnings
- Sharp fall in tax rate without justification
- Extraordinary items / misc. expenses recurring
- Non-recurring income / channel stuffing signals

Qualitative

- Goodwill/revaluation reserves unusually high
- Receivables & inventory rising faster than revenue
- High leverage, falling DSCR/ICR
- Large related-party transactions
- Non-core investments; contingent liabilities

3. On-Ground & Business Reality Check

- Scuttlebutt: customer, vendor, employee feedback
- Factory/office visits every 6–9 months
- Capacity utilization & inventory verification
- Market validation — demand, pricing power, competition
- Promoter reputation & background checks
- Channel checks for revenue authenticity

4. Technology & Competitive Moat Validation

- Patents/IP ownership & defensibility
- In-house R&D capability & spend discipline
- Order book, LOIs & execution visibility
- Tech adoption & automation level
- Scalability & entry-barrier assessment

Strategic Approach to Identify High-Potential SMEs

By combining a game-changing product analysis, risk mitigation strategies, and superior growth expectations, this approach selects high-potential SMEs poised to outperform.

Asset Allocation & Progressive Risk Management

Asset Allocation

- The portfolio strategy involves an average allocation of 0.5% to 2% per company, primarily through pre-IPO investments on the main board. This approach ensures diversification across approximately 100 companies within the portfolio.

Sector Diversification

- The portfolio will be diversified across sectors, but exits wouldn't be dictated by percentage weight. Even if a position grows to 20% of the portfolio, we shall retain it as long as it meets investment criteria. For example, a pre-IPO investment in a high-growth sector will be held until its value proposition changes, prioritizing long-term gains over rebalancing.

Risk Management

- Volatility Management through VAR Framework.
- Scenario Analysis
- Liquidity Management (Dry Powder) & War Chest Fund

Belief in Earnings. Driven by Value.

At VentureX we believe that amidst countless market theories, one truth stands out clearly: the share price succeed its earnings and value creation potential. This principle, proven time and again through the history of stock markets, forms the foundation of our investment philosophy.

Our focus is on high-growth small-cap companies in the SME sector, where opportunities for earnings growth are unparalleled. By combining this with a disciplined approach to downside valuation and strong fundamentals, we aim to deliver sustainable and rewarding investment outcomes.

Stock returns are largely driven by two engines: growth in earnings, which expands the intrinsic value, and P/E re-rating, where the market is willing to pay a higher (or lower) multiple for those earnings. In simple terms, earnings growth builds the foundation of returns, while P/E re-rating acts as the accelerator or brake. Sustainable gains come when both move in the same direction.

"Together, they determine whether a stock compounds wealth faster or lags behind"

SME IPOs, at their best, have outperformed every traditional asset class by a significant margin. A well-selected SME IPO portfolio would have delivered 3–5x returns in two to three years, something gold, real estate, or even the Nifty couldn't replicate.

Backing Visionaries, Powering India's Growth

At VentureX, we believe in backing the visionaries driving India's growth story. As the nation moves toward becoming one of the top three global economies and a key contributor to world GDP, we focus on businesses that exemplify resilience, innovation, and entrepreneurial excellence.

Consider Waaree Renewable Technologies, which leveraged its SME listing to emerge as a renewable energy leader during India's clean energy transition. Or Thejo Engineering, the first company to list on NSE Emerge, which utilized the platform to access capital and scale its innovative engineering solutions. These companies demonstrate the entrepreneurial grit and adaptability that align perfectly with our investment philosophy.

We prioritize businesses with strong execution history, a competitive moat, and clear growth visibility favoured by sectoral tailwinds. Our disciplined approach ensures a balance between downside protection and maximizing long-term returns. We invest not just in numbers but in narratives, drawing inspiration from the entrepreneurial spirit to emulate their vision. Embracing this perspective, we strive to invest with the foresight and determination that define entrepreneurial success.

SME

Your Hidden Alpha Advantage

Analysis of both absolute returns and Compound Annual Growth Rates (CAGR) over a 6-year period, demonstrates a compelling trend: Small and Mid-sized Enterprises (SMEs) have consistently surpassed the performance of established benchmarks like the Nifty 50 and the Nifty Small Cap 100.

This superior performance translates into positive alpha, a key metric indicating an investment's ability to generate returns that exceed those of the broader market. In simpler terms, by investing in SMEs, shareholders have enjoyed significant returns that outperform the market average.

Comparison of Absolute Gains *

BSE SME index has generated a 5745% Absolute return over the past five years.

Comparison of CAGR Gains *

BSE SME index has generated a 126% CAGR return over the past five years.

* Data Source: NSE, Data till Mar 2025

Given the consistent outperformance, even a modest allocation to SME's within a portfolio has the potential to significantly boost overall returns and push them towards superior, risk-adjusted performance.
